

Meet Major General Smedley Butler, USMC

“I spent 33 years and four months in active military service and during that period I spent most of my time as a high class muscle man for Big Business, for Wall Street and the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer, a gangster for capitalism.”

Major General Smedley D. Butler, USMC

Born: West Chester, PA, Born July 30, 1881

Died: June 21, 1940

Two Congressional Medals of Honor, 1914, 1917

Distinguished Service Medal, 1919

Retired October 1, 1931

Anti-War Activist & Lecturer – 1930's

Republican Candidate for Senate, 1932

Major General Smedley Darlington Butler, nicknamed "Old Gimlet Eye", was a senior United States Marine Corps officer who fought in the Philippine–American War, the Boxer Rebellion, the Mexican Revolution and World War I. During his 34-year career as a Marine, he participated in military actions in the Philippines, China, and Central America; the Caribbean during the Banana Wars; and France in World War I. Butler was, at the time of his death, the most decorated Marine in U.S. history. By the end of his career, Butler had received 16 medals, five for heroism. He is one of 19 men to receive the Medal of Honor twice, one of three to be awarded both the Marine Corps Brevet Medal (along with Wendell Neville and David Porter) and the Medal of Honor, and the only Marine to be awarded the Brevet Medal and two Medals of Honor, all for separate actions.

The 'Business Plot' of 1933 ( The 'Corporate Fascist Coup' )

In July, 1933 General Butler was approached by two wealthy industrialists who offered him $30 million dollars, a position as 'co-president', and the support of 500,000 troops and the mainstream media to lead a coup against President Franklin D. Roosevelt and remove him from office. Butler pretended to go along with it, eventually meeting with the main conspirators behind the plot. Their intention was to install a fascist regime like the one in Nazi Germany and Italy in hopes of profiting from the Great Depression. After gathering the information, Butler then appeared to testify before a committee of House Representatives. The representatives believed Butler but refused to pursue the people responsible. In its final report in 1934, the McCormack-Dickstein Committee stated; "In the last few weeks of the committee's official life it received evidence showing that certain persons had made an attempt to establish a fascist organization in this country - and might have been placed in execution when and if the financial backers deemed it expedient." The media turned on Butler, calling his allegations "a hoax". President Roosevelt eventually cut a deal with the plotters, and nothing came of it. However, General Butler had foiled the plot and he named the names, when he appeared before Congress to tell the story...

USMC General and Medal of Honor recipient wrote a bestselling book describing how wars exist to enrich corporations. In 1935.

Butler later became an outspoken critic of American wars and their consequences. In 1935, Butler wrote a book titled War Is a Racket, where he describes and criticizes the workings of the United States in its foreign actions and wars, such as those in which he had been involved, including the American corporations and other imperialist motivations behind them. After retiring from service, he became a popular advocate, speaking at meetings organized by veterans, pacifists, and church groups in the 1930s.

In a 1934 press conference, Major General Smedley D Butler reveals to America and the World the plot by the 'Corporate Fascists' of a coup in Newtown Square Pennsylvania.

“War Is A Racket”

WAR is a racket. It always has been.

It is possibly the oldest, easily the most profitable, surely the most vicious. It is the only one international in scope. It is the only one in which the profits are reckoned in dollars and the losses in lives.

A racket is best described, I believe, as something that is not what it seems to the majority of the people. Only a small "inside" group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few, at the expense of the very many. Out of war a few people make huge fortunes.

“If only more of today’s military personnel would realize that they are being used by the owning elite’s as a publicly subsidized (crony—predatory) capitalist goon squad.” <https://www.youtube.com/embed/2pSOekHA8OQ>

“Our boys were sent off to die with beautiful ideals painted in front of them. No one told them that dollars and cents were the real reason they were marching off to kill and die.”

—General Smedley Butler, 1881–1940

At the time of his death, he was the most decorated Marine in U.S. History.

How many people have ever heard his name?—let alone what he has accomplished? How many school children ever get to hear his name?

Butler speaks out about World War 1

In the World War [I] a mere handful garnered the profits of the conflict. At least 21,000 new millionaires and billionaires were made in the United States during the World War. That many admitted their huge blood gains in their income tax returns. How many other war millionaires falsified their tax returns no one knows.

How many of these war millionaires shouldered a rifle? How many of them dug a trench? How many of them knew what it meant to go hungry in a rat-infested dug-out? How many of them spent sleepless, frightened nights, ducking shells and shrapnel and machine gun bullets? How many of them parried a bayonet thrust of an enemy? How many of them were wounded or killed in battle?... (including their children)

Out of war nations acquire additional territory, if they are victorious. They just take it. This newly acquired territory promptly is exploited by the few—the selfsame few who wrung dollars out of blood in the war. The general public shoulders the bill.

And what is this bill?

This bill renders a horrible accounting. Newly placed gravestones. Mangled bodies. Shattered minds. Broken hearts and homes. Economic instability. Depression and all its attendant miseries. Back-breaking taxation for generations and generations.

“WAR IS NEVER FOUGHT FOR FREEDOM
IT IS ALWAYS FOUGHT FOR THE RICH”

“If only more of today’s military personnel would realize that they are being used by the owning elite’s as a publicly subsidized (a crony-predatory) capitalist goon squad.”

I wouldn't go to war again as I have done to protect some lousy investment of the bankers. There are only two things we should fight for. One is the defense of our homes and the other is the Bill of Rights. War for any other reason is simply a racket.

Hitler's American Business Partners U.S. Companies that Profited from both sides in World War II

This documentary uncovers the unholy alliance between Nazi Germany and some of the biggest corporations in the US — companies which were indispensable for Hitler to wage war. Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer; James D Mooney, the General Motors manager; and Tom Watson, the IBM boss were all awarded the Grand Cross of the German Eagle — the Nazi's highest distinction for foreigners for their services to the Third Reich.

In the statistics of the Reich they were referred to as enemy companies with American shareholders. In the war there were 553 of them, including such well-known names as Coca-Cola, Kodak and American Express; yet very few of them were enemies — some had close contacts to the Nazis. In the case of four large American companies and their German subsidiaries, Hitler was even able to regard the bosses as friends. Without them he would not have been able to wage war. They saw him as the man who would soon be in control of Europe.

At this time, in 1937 and 1938, Hitler's armaments industry was running at full speed. The German subsidiaries of these American companies — Opel, the Ford Werke AG and Dehomag — had willingly allowed themselves to be integrated into the "Führer's" war preparations. Without the trucks and track-laying vehicles produced by Opel and Ford, Hitler would never have been able to occupy Czechoslovakia or invade Poland and France.

Opel was also involved in the production of Ju-88, Hitler's most important bomber. Standard Oil of New Jersey supplied crude oil, special motor oil for tanks and lead additives for aircraft fuel right up to the first years of the war. The Hollerith machines of IBM, predecessor of present-day computers, were to help Hitler organise war and destruction.

The film concentrates on the companies which were indispensable for Hitler to wage war. The documentary is supported by new archive material, as well as interviews with contemporary witnesses and experts.

Everything is a Rich Man's Trick: JFK to 9/11

What do Hitler, the Nazi Regime, the Royal Family, the Italian Mafia, former US President John F. Kennedy, and the unforgettable events of 9/11 have in common? A shadow Government consisting of the world's wealthiest ruling class harlots and hideous men.

This documentary travels back in time to the days of Adolf Hitler, explores the indirect link to the Nazi Regime and Kennedy's assassination, to the modern day terrorist events of 9/11. We learn how a shadow Government pushed to instigate wars that would fill the pockets of the world's elitist 1%. A time when Hitler was merely a puppet used to carry out the dirty deeds of some of the world's dirtiest men. Uncovered is the way the entire world was fooled into thinking that the allies won the war against the Nazis, when really the Illuminati, the 1%, were the ones who really won because they were playing both sides of the war.

But, what does the Mafia have to do with JFK? Well, in this film it's revealed that good ole' JFK was trying to get the USA out of the dirty hands of the Mafia – who at the time were basically running the CIA, FBI, and other agencies behind the scenes. Like something from a work of fiction, an elaborate plot to assassinate the President, planned by high ranking members of the FBI, CIA, Chief of Staff, Mafia, and of course the wealthiest Dallas oilmen, is revealed, with footage and eye witness reports.

We learn the true story of Lee Harvey Oswald and how he was framed as the “fall man” in the Kennedy assassination, and the eventual suspicious murders of the entire dream team of professional killers responsible for the President's death, including Oswald's death. Names like J. Edgar Hoover, George H. Bush, Sam Giancana, and The Skull & Bones Society are merely the tip of the iceberg in characters responsible for the Kennedy assassination.

Eventually, the documentary fast forwards to a time not so long ago: September 11th, 2001. Uncovered is the United State's bloody history in waging false flag operations to maintain a state of war – after all, we learn that war is a lucrative business. This gripping film reveals the scary truth that the motives and players involved in 9/11 are no different from those of past historical events like the 'Bay of Pigs' and the 'Vietnam Invasion.'

If you can stomach the cold, hard truth behind the bloody connections of Auschwitz, the Italian mob, JFK and 9/11, then this documentary, JFK to 9/11: Everything Is A Rich Man's Trick, is just the film for you. Hold on, you're in for a long, blood-curdling ride!

MILITARY-INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX

“Naturally, the common people don't want war; neither in Russia nor in England nor in America nor, for that matter, in Germany. That is understood. But, after all, it is the leaders of the country who determine the policy and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy or a fascist dictatorship or a Parliament or a Communist dictatorship. ... All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same way in any country.” Hermann Göring

Storm is Coming

HE ALSO WARNED US

In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex.

The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist. We must never let the weight of this combination endanger our liberties or democratic processes.

We should take nothing for granted. Only an alert and knowledgeable citizenry can compel the proper meshing of the huge industrial and military machinery of defense with our peaceful methods and goals, so that security and liberty may prosper together.

"There's a plot in this country to enslave every man, woman and child. Before I leave this high and noble office, I intend to expose this plot."
